Graduate Certificate in Multicultural Education
Department of Educational, School and Counseling Psychology
University of Missouri-Columbia

Name: _____ Date: _____

YEAR 1

Fall Semester _____ Total Hours (3)

Diversity Issues for School Personnel I (3 credits)

The purpose of this course is to increase the multicultural competencies of educators working with diverse student populations. As the racial, ethnic and cultural make-up of U.S society changes, educators can expect that they will interact with students and families from culturally diverse groups and that they will have a primary role in socializing students about diversity issues.

Spring Semester _____ Total Hours (3)

Diversity Issues for School Personnel II (3 credits)

The prerequisite for this course is ESCP 8087: Diversity Issues for School Personnel.
The purpose of this course is to take a more in depth look at the field of multicultural education as it applies to curriculum, instruction and assessment. Students will examine current developments in multicultural education and use that knowledge to interrogate their current educational situations. Finally, students will design an action plan that will infuse newly acquired knowledge into their current job situation.
